Constitution Square Arts Fest

Make plans now to join other artists in the 31st annual Constitution Square Arts Fest!

The event will showcase the finest artists from across the region!

Traditionally held on the grounds of Constitution Square State Historic Site, we are expanding the festival this year to allow more participants. Booths will line Main Street, with food and entertainment at each end. Also you will find living history, period encampments, audience participation, entertainment, artist demonstrations and much more!

Our event allows visitors to step back in time 200 years and experience first hand the daily activities, social culture and attitude of the day. Highlights of the event are folk music artists, a 5K run, juried artisans, craft demonstrations, museum tours, art shows, pioneer encampments, and much more!

Please fill out the attached application and submit with photos to be included in this exceptional event.

If you have questions or need additional information, call the Heart of Danville Main Street Program at 859-236-1909 or email at info@constitutionsquareartsfest.org.

It's all arts! It's all downtown!
